Jen. D. J. Palmer Confers With Local Members and Committeemen on Encampment.

Gen. David J. Palmer of Des Moines, lowa, commander-in-chief of the G. A. vator operators in that building to R., was in Washington yesterday, conerring with members of the citizens committee of one hundred in the interest of the national encampment, which will be held here during the last week of September.

The commander-in-chief, as the guest of Col. John McElroy, took luncheon at the National Press Club with William F. Gude, chairman of the citi- tion, as well as for the better identizens' committee: Thomas Grant, secretary: C. J. Gockeler, treasurer, and Col. especially strangers in the city, seek-

Robert N. Harper, chairman of the finance committee, by whom he was told of the preparations that are being made for the encampment.

Gen. Palmer was enthusiastic over the progress which has been made in the development of these plans. He told his hosts that during a recent tour of the United States made by him in the interests of the encampment tremendous enthusiasm had been in evimendence in all the sections visited, and dence in all the sections visited, and that on all sides were comments on the vigor with which Washington is working to make the encampment a memorable occasion.

To Be Greatest in History

To Be Greatest in History.

Chairman Gude, in speaking of the already perfected plans, told the commander-in-chief that no effort was being spared to make the coming encampment the greatest in the history campment the greatest in the campment of the G. A. R.

After luncheon the party visted the old census building, for the securing of which for encampment purposes negotiations are now under way. Gen. Palmer was delighted with the arrangements of the building, and expressed hopes that it would be obtained. Later in the afternoon Chairman Gude accompanied the commander-in-chief to the train.

Mr. Harper, chairman of the finance committee, is making every effort to have tardy subscribers send in their pledges, as the executive committee is anxious to call at as early a date as possible a meeting to act upon contracts into which several of the larger subcommittees must soon enter.

In the securing of which is building, or purposes negotiations are sunder way. Gen Palmer was sented to the convention, and as a sunder way. Gen Palmer was sented to the convention at the election May and expression of the property of the hope we will not be forced to."

Judge Gary said that the corporation's business for 1915 had been better so far than for 1914. The company, he asserted, was doing a very satisfactory export business but domestic conditions were not so good and prices had not been satisfactory.

"Therefore our profits are small," he said. "I think earnings for the first quarter of this year will be small. Prospects for the second quarter seem to be considerably better."
